

The Educational Building Society (EBS) is a mutual building society with a network of 57 branches throughout the country. The EBS uses the DX's pouched mail service to deliver internal mail, application forms, cheques, and all the inter-office correspondence of this busy retail bank.

RELIABLE, SECURE, SCHEDULED DELIVERY

Each morning, EBS head office in Dublin 4 consigns a delivery of 57 pouches to the DX; one for every branch office nationwide. The DX delivers these pouches through the front door of the branch during opening hours, usually between 10h00 and 11h00 each day. Later that same day, usually between 16h00 and 17h00, the DX returns to each branch and picks up that office's pouch for head office. This service is similar to the one we provide for Ireland's 5 main clearing banks, with the key difference that the branch pick ups and deliveries are made during normal branch working hours.

COST SAVINGS, TRUSTED SERVICE

EBS chose the DX for a variety of reasons, principal among them being the substantial cost savings over other courier companies. It is vitally important for EBS to be able to rely on a trusted and secure delivery system between its branches and head office. The DX supplies this service, and does so in a way that allows EBS branches to operate as normal, without making special out-of-hours arrangements for internal mail. The DX provides services and savings that our competitors simply can't match.
